By telegraph from Washington we learn that the Democratic Senators held a caucus there yestarday, at which Senators Douglas, Broderick of California, and Stewart of Michigan, wore formally read out of the Administration Party, for their opposition to the Lecempton Swindle .-This will only have the effect of fireing up the Little Giant, under whose standard the great majority of the Domocracy of the North wil- now rally, and take decisive grounds against the National Shamooracy. The Senate was not in session yesterday.

The Scoretary of the Treasury has advertised for proposals of the issue of five millions addition al Treasury notes, authorized under the late law. The details of our Wushi ngton news will be found interesting. The proceedings of our State Legislature are of north, accompanied by his daughters. A despatch from Newport, announced the death of the wife of Commodore Perry, of the which a firemma was shot dead, We print elsewhere this morning a full account of the attempted assassimation of the Emperor of France.

We also give place to an interesting account of the Fort Scott disturbance in Kansas. The Border Rullians continue committing outrages upon the Free State men whenever an opportunity presents itself.

The various market reports indicate a little more amunition in commercial affairs.

The weather yesterday was cloudy with a fair prespect of snow. Nothing of consequence transpired in our

About the 20th of November, when the many panic in the United States and Europe was raging, and anticipated commercial diffic thies were still more appuller, my house considered it wise and prations to adopt a course which would offectually protect its own credit and save many correspondents, who were mable to need on gagements by remittance, from inconvenience and loss.

The acceptances at my house at that time were £2,300,000 (not £5,000,000) and our application to the bank was for a lean on good securities for £5,000,000, should so much be required. depositing scourities of our own for the some.

Up to this time we have taken no more than £300,000, although the securities deposited amount to a much larger sum; and since that time my house has paid £1,510,000 of the £2,800,000 acceptances out, as stated, at the £2,800,000 acceptances out, as stated, at the time of its application to the banks.

We will further remark that the strongth of our principal correspondents is such that our losses on the acceptances above stated, given on their account, will, comparatively be but triffing.

In justice to my house, and to American credit generally, I think the facts stated should be known to the American public, and they are the state of the Indoorm, Interest, and West Water streets, (Comman Lipsis Charch, Carmentan,) Rev. ## From Kansas.

LAWRENCE, K. T., Fob. 1. essenger bringing despatches to the military Board from the commanding officers of the 1st Regiment Kansas Militia, in Bourbon county, arrived at this place yesterday, conveying intelligence of the recover of difficulties in the vicinity of Fort Scott, and asking assistance from the Commander in Chlef and the Board in quelling the disturbance,
It appears since Gon. Lane disbanded the force under his command, in that neighborhood, some weeks ago, the ruffians who make fort Scottfcheirfhead-quarters, nided by their associates

Throats have constantly been made against all the Free State settlers who reside on the Marmaton and Little Osage rivers, and they have been more or less compelled to band together tor protection.

Last week three persons, very conservative Free State men, to say the least, residing in Fort Scott, were brutally assaulted and robbed.

Two of them were taken and now are detailed prisoners in that Rullian hole. The third, a Mr. Johnson, who keeps a small greery and provision store, was on Thursday last set upon by an armed band, with pistole and ginas, and beaten severely. He was robbed of five horese, over one hundred dollars in mensy, and some five horese, over one hundred dollars in other property. He karely escaped with his life, and the rescale are now engaged in disposing of the goods in his store.

The only crime of which this man is accused was that he became of the Rev. Mr. Stew.

The whole of the free state settlers are banded together, and remain encamped on the Little Csage, at the spot where the conflict was had with the United States Deputy Marshal Little's posse, waiting the result of their message to the Military Board. th the United States Deputy Marshal Little's 7, P. 6.2.3

Gen. Lane is at present absent, but will be for to-morrow, whou the Board will hold its first regular session.

You may expect to hear further from this quarter, as the highly excited state of feeling at present existing would seem almost inevitably to bring about a collision, should the least opinion of the respectable sum of eight hundred dellars.

On Saturday night last a difficulty occurred between two pro-shavery men at this town, and the result was a collision, in the course of which one man was fatally stabbed. Bet men are ne-torious rangers, belonging to a gang headed by a follow named Edwards. I have not learned a tenow harmed Edwards. I have not learned the name of the parties, but only know that they are members of this gang. The murderer was seized by the pueple of the place, a Vigilance Committee organized, and a jury enpanualled, who proceeded to try the fellow according to the forms and regulations laid down by Judge Lynch. He was convicted and sentenced to be lung with sentence was carried into execuhung, which sentonce was carried into exacu-tion yesterday. The man who was stabbed died shortly after the fatal wound was given. TERRITORIAL INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE. The committee appointed by the Territorial Legislature to investigate the Kickapoo, Delaware Grossing, Oxford and Shawnee frauds have been at work the past week in Leavenworth City.

They have had before them one judge of the Delaware Crossing election, Juck Henderson and others of the same etamp. In regard to the re-turns from the newly discovered city of Dela-ware Growing, the evidence is sufficient to show ware drowling, the evidence is sufficient to show that but forty three votes were actually east on the 4th ult. This fact was proved by one of the Judges. This must be thirty more votes then there are legal voters in the precinct, it being on the Delaware Reserve. After being handed to Hondorson they suddenly swelled up to over 500. Among the names on the forged poll list, were those of Horaco Groeley, Wm. H. Meward, John C. Framont, James Buchana, Gov. Deaver, G. W. Brown and other parsons consiliver, G. W. Brown and other persons equally well-known. The last named it appears voted ver, G. W. Brown and other persons equally well-known. The last moned I appears voted twice, so at least the returns show. Henderson's evidence shows that on the night before the election, Calhoun, Franklin, Diellendorf, wrote and sent a letter to Danferth, at Shawnee, in Johnson Country, urging him to see that a large homeometic rote was noticed at Delaware Cross-Domneratie vote was polled at Delaware Gross-

The plot formed avidoutly intended that Missourlans should pall the vote, but failing in that the conspirators were compelled to resert to forging the returns. To facilitate this, the Judge's cartificate was not appenned, directly after the forty-three votes that were polled, but at the and of several blank sheets, thus conveniently enabling Heuderson to fill up the vacancy. I wrote to you a report that Handerson was arrested at Leavenworth City. This turned out to have resulted from his appearing before the Investiga-ting Committee. After giving his avidance he retired to Weston, Mo., where he remains saug-

By means of this fraud the Marshall State ticket is elected. The Leavenworth Herald, the only " out and out" Lecompton Constitution paper in the Torritory, announces as official that the pro-slavery numbers are elected, with the exception of the candidate for Congress. Marcus J. Parrott having overshot the set of his teket. It is suited, however, that Calhoun does not claim that the Legislators are elected in not claim that the Legislators are elected in Leavenworth County.

In Douglas County it appears that nearly all of the votes east for State officers by Free State men, amounting to five or six hundred, were sent with the returns of the vote upon the Constitution to Gov. Donver. Calloun refuses to count them, they not heing forwarded to him in accordance with the provisions of the swindling schedule. This gives the Rufflans the members elect from Douglas county, and still keeps up the Sycamore street, opposite the Fourth Ward park. osual importance.

BY MAGNETIO TELEGRAPH XXXVth Congress-First Session:

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11. SENATE.—Mr. Evans reported a resolution making appropriation for printing the opinion of the Supreme Court on the Dred Scott case.

Mr. Doollittle offered an amendment to the effect that in passing this resolution the Senate does not mean to endorse the Dred Scott decision, and calling for the ayes and mays, which re-sulted as follows:—nyes 19, nays 22.

A discussive debate took place on the resolu-tion.

Mr. Cameron said that he felt compelled to Mr. Cameron said that he felt compelled tovote for the bill, because the work having beoddone, should be paid for; yet he protested against the principle of the Senate paying $15,— 000 for the copyright of documents belonging to the Government.

Mr. Pugh also objected to paying for the copyright of them

mr. Benjamin suggested that the word "copy-right" be struck out and "all other expenses" substituted, which was accoded to. Mr. Slidel replied to some remarks from Mr. Dodittle; scoated the idea that in voting for the appropriation, Senators would be considered as suddrains the windrake of the Trad Seat desir ndorsing the principles of the Dred Scott decis on.

Messra: Cameron and Pugli made strong points against the resolution, but voted yea.

The vote was then taken, with the following result: You's 32—including Messrs. Cameron, Dison, Fosfer and Hale: nays 12—including 4r. Stuart.

Mr. Wikon offered a resolution to the effect that the state of the st that the Secretary of War be required to inform the Senate what officers of the army belong to the regiments now in service and are absent from service, and the cause of such absence, which was agreed to unanimously. Mr. Davis continued his speech on the Army for the Toxan frontier.

Mr. Toombis preferred volunteers, and styled the regular army a depotism. He cautioned Sonators no beware of it. Mr. Davis appr hended no danger to liberty from the small number of the army.

Mr. Wilson thought the President ought to be authorized to receive the services of 6,000 volunteers for Usah; he believed the army hig enough.

A motion to strike out the first section, which proposed to add two companies to each regiment was lost—25 against 26. The same section was subsequently amended by limiting the increase to two years.

Mr. Hale said he had as soon vote for an in crease for all time as for two years, for that would be the ultimate result. Without taking the ques-tion on the bill, the Senate adjourned till Mon. Ay. House—Mr. Stanton, from select committee to investigate the charges of bribery in connection with the tariff of 1866, replied that Mr. J. W. Walcots was asked the question—" Did you receive from Lawrence, Stone & Co., some time in March a sum of securities or money, to the amount of $80,000, more or less."

Mr. Walcott answered that he did not receive money and representations of the control of the contr money or securities of any amount, for the pur-pose of influencing directly or indirectly, the ac-tion or vote of any member or officer of the pre-purpose. This was an important interrogation, and it a proper answer cannot be obtained, the House had better disband the committee. Mr. Underwood said the House was treading on delicate ground. They had better pass by the matter till to-morrow, when the question and answer would be printed, and they would know exactly their character.

Mr. Philips said they should establish such a rule by which all such cases should be governed by it. The witness had equivocated when he

by it. The witness had equivocated when he should have responded.

Mr. Seward said if the witness was guilty of perjury, he was liable to be indicted, but he swore unequivocally that he never used money, directly or indirectly, to affect the legislation of the House. We could only proceed as far as a court of justice could, and had no right to pry into private affirs. into private affairs.

Mr. Purviance said they had a right to know whether the witness ever received the money, and the names of the parties to whom he disbursed it, with a view to ascertain whether it was bursed it, with a view to ascertain whether it was used for corrupt purposes.

Mr. John Cochrane remarked that it was unwise for the House to delay. The time had arrived to assert its authority and to bring the witness before the House for contempt.

Mr. Seward denied that the witness was in contempt of the authority of the House. At this stage the witness had a right to say to the Committee he did not recognize its authority to Committee he did not recognize its authority to propound questions affecting his private affairs and could appeal to the House.

Mr. Bowie argued that the witness had purged himself of the contempt, and that the House had no further right to pursue the matter.

Mr. Moore, said unless the House sustained the Committee, he would asked to be excused from longer service.

Mr. Gooch thought the House now unprepared to act on a question of such importance, and that action should be delayed until to-morrow.— The mere refusal to answer before the Committee did not constitute contempt; that was a ques-tion for the House to determine. Mr. Lovejoy said the witness had equivocated, he received $80,000 it was no trouble for him to tell what he did with it.

The House passed the resolution reported from the Committee.

House:—The Sergeant-at-Arma having replied that he had in obedience to the order of the House, arrested John W. Welcott, he was required to bring him before the bar. The Speaker, in pursuance of the resolution adopted yestorday, asked him what excuse he had for not answering the question propounded to him by the Select Committee, and whether he was now prepared to answer that and all other proper questions. The witness was sworn by the Speaker as to the truth of his written reply, which was to the chect that he was here in obedience to an order of the House, to answer for alleged contempt committed by him. He assured the House in all sincerity, that he did not design, nor suppose that he was guilty of such offence, and respectfully asked until Monday to purge himself of the charge of contempt, and fally justify his conduct, he wished again to consult his counsel. Whig leader, but now the leader of the Democracy ;-a studning blow, we say, for whou an Administration with $80,000,000ol patronage, and 100,000 offices, falls, after stretching and straining itself, as the Administration has to carry the Lecompton Constitution, the blow is stunning indeed. The Federal Government, however, showed its strongth, and its teeth to, we may add, in being able to win over and to sopre up so many Northern men to vote for Le compton against the whole current of Northern feeling and Northern determination .- but its failare is only the more signal and fatal, because it has used such mighty efforts, and failed after using them. The blow is one, therefore, that not only stops the head of the Administration, but, in reality breaks its back bone in its further attempts to carry on the government in a party

Why they were Appointed.

The Free Democrat pronounces the appointment of A. Bade, as lespector-General of the Milwankee Brigade, "an appointment not fit, to be made by a Republican Governor." It also adds, that the appointment by Governor Randall of Dr. Gatner, as Surgeon-General, surprised "old-fashioned Republicans" there.

With regard to the present appointment, it was made, we understand, at the sarress request of a large number of Republicans, who take an interest in the military organization of the State. It est in the military organization of the State. It is true that Mr. Bade is a "Democrat;" but he is an accomplished officer; and in military matters, in organizing for purposes of self-defense, and to repel invasions upon our frontiers, as General McManman says, all considerations of party dif-toronco may occasionally be forgotten with property.

Mr. Bado's appointment was urged by prominent Republicans who stand will with the party, but whicher of the peculiar stripe denominated "old-fashloned Republicans," or not, we are unable to say. We are not versed in those nice distinctions by which some persons seek to keep up a division in the party, and to bring into it the weakness of internal fends, dissensions and isalousles.

we have heard that Gov. Randall remarked tha he appointed him for three reasons—1st, tune no considered him an excellent surgeon, and a very proper person for the place; 2d, that he asteemed him as a man; and 3d that he appointed him to the surgeon must be because he wanted to. These reasons must be satisfactory to "old inchioned" and new fashioned Republicans.—Madison Journal. Pannonad,-The Queen of Spain has pardon-ed young Campbell, of Boston, who was engaged on the ship Waverly at the time of the horrid act, when 200 Chinese Coolles were destroyed In the port of Manilla, by the cruelty of French, the commanding officer. The crime being committed in the Spanish jurisdiction of the Phillipine Islands, the master and seamen were tried there, and young Campbell sentenced to three years in the chain gang. Having acted ignorantly under the orders of the Captain, he was deemed not guilty, and therefore pardoned.

The attempted assessination of the Emperor had been the all-engrossing topic of the week.—
On the day following the event, addresses were made to the Emparor by representatives of the Corps Diplomatique, of the Senate, the Legisla-tive body, the Council of State, &c., congratulating him and the Empress upon their escape.— Some of the officials in their addresses binted that the English Government should be called that the English Government should be called upon to uspoil those refugees who abused her bospitality by organizing, in their getreat, plans of destruction, and perfecting their conspiration. The Emperor, in rely to the great bodies of the State, expressed his entire confidence and reliance in their support and devotion.—He added that, at the same time, he was resolved to adopt such measures as might be deemed advisable, but should not depart, from that nath Wo have run in debt $10,000 for one lot for advisable, but should not depart, from that path of firmness and moderation which he had hith-erto followed.

FURTHER PARTICULARS.

The French journals had joined in the cry for the expulsion of the conspirators from Europe, and the Paris correspondence of the Times says it was positively stated that a communication had been made by the French Minister in London to the English Government, demanding the expulsion from England of five political refugees—one or two Italian and the rest French.

The effect of the explosion of the three investigations are processed in the control of the three investigations. The effect of the explosion of the three projectiles proved, on investigation, to be far more disasterous than was at first supposed. The number of persons more or less wounded, tell little, if any, short of one hundred and fifty; and six had died of the injuries they sustained, in The projectiles employed were of the most formidable kind, and it is said that not less than twanty of them were meant to be usud. Five minutes prior to the explosions, an Italian Pierri, who was expelled from France in 1852, of 'this_department, will be $12,090, for the present year (which is not over rated,) but the committee did not enquire into, nor try to introduce the police and arrested. He was necessary to make this outlay or not. One specific charge is made which is the buying of a lot, for number one engine, for the sen of $10,000 and expecting to the sense of the build a house thereon corresponding in expense.

Now let it be distinctly noted here that the lot in question is situated on Main street, in the bad arrived in Panis for the purpose; of identify ing Pierrie and Orsini as having been connect ed with the affair of Foschini, who escaped from London some time since.

The Emperor exhibited much solicitude for wounded, and had distributed decorations among. the numerous soldiers who received lejuries. The adoption of stringent measures in regard to the Italians resident in Paris was contemplated the Italians resident in Faris was contemplated. Congratulations had been received by the Emperor from nearly all the European Governments.

A bill was presented to the Corps Legislatif for granting pensions to the victims of the explosions and their families.

A secret society had been discovered in Paris, and guppowder and arms had been seized.

Davelopments by the police of Birmingham, England, show that Plerri and Orsini had laid

His military career terminated with the Roman Republic; since then he has led the usual life of a conspirator. He was arrested, as you may!re-member, only a few moments before the attempt was made, as he stood by a door half way down the Rue Lepelletier. <sup>4</sup>He was recognized by Her-bert, the chief of police on duty, as a man who had been expelled four years ago from France. The arrest was fortunate, as, had he been at The arrest was fortunate; as, had he been at liberty to act, the danger; great as it was, would have been more so.—A projectile, a poniard and a revolver were found on him. I may as well observe that the Opera house of the Rue Lepelletter is not the Italian; but the French Opera; its official designation is 'Academie Imperiale de Musique." The house where Italian performances are given is on the other side of the Boulevard, Rue Monsigny, and is sometimes called the Salle Youthdour. The Rue Lepellotter house is the national establishment for music, as the The are Francis is for the regular drama; both receive a large sum in aid from the State.

When Pierri, was, taken to the guard house, near the spot where he was arrested, the explosion had not yet taken place. In two minutes, however, it reached his ear; he cried out to the guard, "Do what you like with me; I am content; the blow is struck!" He appeared certain that it had taken effect, but was dismayed when he heard of the Emperor's escape.

The person named Ceslui is, it seems, the same whose extraordinary escape from the release. adwann he heard of the competers estape.

The person need Orsial is, it seems, the same whose extraordinary escape from the prisace of 1866, the city erocted a building for the accommodation of fire companies, and a slush room for cleaning and alring hose, at an expense of $42,000.

It will be seen by comparing our expenses with those of the other cities named, that we have been at least, no more extravagant than our neighbors.

Whether it will be safe to cut down the expenses of the department one half hereafter must be left to the judgement of those to whose care the people will intrust their interests. If to make no provision for the fut re, and let what we have go to rack and ruin be true economy, then my views on the subject are wide of the was asked who was his master? He remained the mark.

Testing the Capacity of "Long John, the Steum Fire Englis." Yesterday afternoon, the steam fire engine, bearing the name of "Long John," (one which has been as familiar as a household word in this Lity for nearly a quarter of a century) was tested at the foot of Lu Saile street, in the presence of number of the city officers and a large crowd of porsons.

Last full, after a careful examination of the Last full, after a carcutticxamination of the subject in all its bearings, a contract was made by the city with Messra. Silsby, Mynders & Co., of Seneca Falls, N. Y., for one of their steam freengines, of the "Holley's Patent," so called, one of which machines, the "Neptune," was dested in this city some months since. The move entire is of the same number. It proved fully an in this city some months since. The new engine is of the same putent. It, proved fully up to the expectatious which preceded it, and did its work in the most creditable, manner, notwithstanding that the intense cold, was unfavorable to a perfect trial of the machine, as it prevented the test applied being of as varied, a character as would otherwise have been practicable. The machine threw streams as follows:

With 40 lbs. of steam, Jour streams through one hundred feet of hoso, with one and one-eight inch nozzle, one hundred and fifty feel horizontally.
With 50 lbs., through the same length of bose, with one and a half inch nexales; two streams one hundred and sixty feet horizontally.

No attempt was made to change the hose or nozzles after the playing commenced, as a pause of even a few minutes would have rondered the hose useless by freezing.

Those present fully agreed that the result of the trial was perfectly satisfactory and that the machine was all that it claimed to be.

The weight of the machine is about five tons, the cost was $8.00. The stelle of Strick is

The introduction of a steam fire engine marks a new era in the progress, of our city, and we trust is an innovation which will be productive of the best results.—Ohicago Democratifies. 12.

The episode which occurred on Saturday morning, in the House of Representatives at Washington, has a social, as well as political aspect, which a sensitive people like ourselves would do well to consider. We allude to the probable effect of these "little difficulties" upon the world's opinion of ourselves and of our civilization. Of course, we think it right, before we say a word on the subject to protest that we need not say a word on the subject to protest that we need not care a sixpence about the world's opinion.
Lords of the Allegianies and the Ordillerss, of the Mississippi and the Hudson, of the broadest akes and the most interminable prairies of the airth, we naturally ought to despise and con-emu the effete-criticism of all the human race esides. Our innumerable banks an our indefiite railways make us independent of foreign na-ions, as of foreign cash. Unfortunately, how wer, all things are not as they should be, eyen nour model country, and we practically do care n great deal more than we are always ready to admit, what Englishmen and Frenchmen say of our manners and customs.

We see always on the look out for any little screp of comment upon us that a foreigner hap-pens to let drop. If it is favorable, we pur beneath it, like a well stroked cat—if unfavora beneath it, like a well stroked cat—if unfavorable, our fury is a frightful thing to see. The taintest indination that our men are not all stacoful and handsome, throws us into convincions. If a roving English tourist bints that somebody he met at Washington eats peas with his knife, the peaceful relations of the two countries are immediately endangered. If a London peany-a-liner throws out an insignation that the stewed prunes on board a Collins's steamer are not so good as on the Canard line, the whole nation rises in a france. nation rises in a frenzy. In short, there is not a fool or knave from Muine to California, who is not sure of having his absurdities or rescalities defended to the death by the whole of this Redetended to the death by the whole of this kepublic, if he can only get a foreigner to print unkind remarks about them.

Such being the state of affairs, the manners and customs of our leading men, upon whom the eyes of the world are most apt to fall, really assume a portentious importance. What is to be done it our Solons won't conduct themselves the conduct of the world that the state of the conduct themselves.

with propriety? If they will treat themselves to a rough and-tumble and drag-out light. Purch will make fun of us, the London Times will will make fun of us, the London Times will jeer at MS, and many of the rotten and worn-out. Aristocracles of the Old, World, whom we despise in our hearts, will-say that there are no gentlemen among us. Here for half a century we have been bragging to all Europe of the exquisite polish and oblivalric refinement of our Southern sea-board planters, of our Garolinian Hugenots, and our Virginian cavilores. We gave up the Yankoes; from the sons of the Roundheaded Puritans nobody, could look for anything better than gaucherie and inquisitive impertinence. But our "proud snawer to the despet and the tyvant," to the fild fogles of Liondon, and Paris, and Yionna, when they boasted of their manners and their Society, was a warning to wait till his lucky sture should bring him into contact with the chivalry of the Old Dominion or the Palmetto, State.

We had gradually convinced ourselves and almost all the world as well, that our rice swamps and our tobacco fields were stocked with a noble army of plantation Bayards and of "mute, ingle-tour" Strapes.

and our tonacco netts were stoned with a nonle army of plantation Bayards and of "murte, inclo-rious" Sidneys. It was a dreadful shock to all of us that Bracks, of the line of Butler, gave when he behaved like a pot-house bully in the Senate Chamber, and listening lords and ladies of his native State applanded. People began to think our "chiyalry" in some way connected with the native State applauded. People began to, think our "chivalry" in some way connected with the celebrated "Mrs. Harris," but we tried to slifle all their doubts by asserting that Brooks had devogated through overmuch drink, and that it was only very valgar people who clubbed together to buy him canes.

And now comes up Mr. Koitt, another "gentleman", of our "well-known style," and plunges us into a worse scrape than the first. He really has behaved so very much like a man who has been bried "behind" the bar, and so very unlike a man who has been accustomed to behave himself in decent company, that unless we can make it appear beyond a doubt that he always was self in decent company, that inless we can make it appear beyond a doubt that he always was considered a low fellow even at heine, and that they sent him to Congress to get him out of Garodina, we may be colliged to go to war to prove that we are a well-bred people; unless, indeed we allop a hint from the "World's Exhibition," and, as soon as Kansasshall have been fairly peaffed, pick up a few specimens of the "real high-toned chivairie gentleman," and send them over, properly ticketed, guaranteed and indigred, to be shown at Willis, rooms, or the "Gonservatoirs," ander the supervision of United States Ministor.—N. Y. Times.

[Wo onigthing about the "Rod Perticont.

The Red Petitions does not seem to make The Rud Putticent does not seem to make much headway. Cold wenther is the excuse generally assigned; but cycleat old fellows insist that the objections are based upon a larger feeting—that great discoveries would be made by abbreviating the existing trails, such discoveries as would confound the lively imaginations which fancy that perfection lucks in concealment; in short, that small foot and pretty ankles are a cayth, their absence being the reason why all urinolinedom still endures the trials of trails, and insists on sweeping the streets with modern anasists on aweeping the streets with modern antique skirts, merely to throw dust in the eyes o hose horrid men. In the mean time, and while the cold weather serves as an excuse for leaving off the woolen petticoat, let us see how they are made and worn. On consulting competent au-thority, we learn that they are not made of flan-uel, but of a weelen material of much heavier fabric. Some are of a plain scariet, crimson o goen, richly embroidered to the dopth or heighth of a quarter of a yard. Others are bordered with embessed flowers or

Others are bordered with embossed dowers of teaves, with black bayadere stripes on the upper part. A cheaper kind are fluished with one stripe only. Prices range from about three delibers to a small fortune. They are or should be worn over a small hoop and next to the dress, reaching within half an inch of the top of the ordinary gatter boot. The dress, which may be longer, is to be looped up on one side so as to show the border of the mystee garment. This tooping up seems to be the siteking point.—Without it the picturesque effect of the peasent puttlecat is lost; still the "better half" of America besitain. They have so long followed Europical and the stripe of the strength of the peasent puttless that the picture of the peasent puttless is lost; still the "better half" of America besitain. They have so long followed Europical stripe. ica besitate. They have so long tellowed Euro posa fashions without question, that tais besit-don creates no little surprise; but it is thought to be a temporary bestudion only, and that the fashion will ultimately triumph. Aside from the effect of the new potitionat as an article of dress, there is another feature which ought to commend it to favor. It renders a burden of skirts unnecessary, and thus relieves woman of a load that materially injures her health. Hoops have done a good work in this direction; the Red Petticoat and hoop united would reduce this evil to a vulgafraction of the lowest denomination. Still, the success of the Balmoral novelty is doubtful, and here are strong symptoms of a ravelation in the there are strong symptoms of a revolution in the world. Some benighted savages suggest that the stars be added to the stripes on the petitiont, so as to naturalize the foreigner and make it an American institution, flut, whatever and where ever its maternity, if the Red Petitiont shall have the effect of rolleving woman from a load of skirts, and more especially of raising these skirts out of the dust, and and tobacco-juice of the , let us embrace the earliest opportunit
